Part 2.

Instructions for Petition Circulators

- Bill 23-07 Summary MUST be printed on the back of the petition signature page. Do NOT staple the summary page as this invalidates the petition. Print one side, flip the paper, reinsert into your printer blank paper area, and print the other.
- You must have a copy of Bill 23-07 with you at all times. The bill is posted here : http://www.montgomerycountymd.gov/content/council/pdf/bill/2007/23-07.pdf
- You must be over 18 and a registered voter to circulate petitions.
- One signature petitions must have the same signature in two places: as the petitioner and as the circulator.
- Circulators must sign and date their affidavit on the right hand corner of the sheet only AFTER all signatures are affixed in their presence. A circulator date which precedes the petition signer's date invalidates any signature which preceded it.
- Your spouse may not witness for you. However, you can witness for yourself.
